ACT OF INCORPORATION.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

An ACT for incorporating certain Persons therein named into a Society by the Name of the Boston Episcopal Charitable Society.

WHEREAS a number of persons, members of the Episcopal Church, did in the year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four, in the town of Boston, form themselves into a society for charitable purposes, which society still continuing, have raised a very considerable stock, out of which they have from time to time contributed to the laudable purposes aforesaid ; and the persons so associated, finding themselves under difficulties for want of an incorporation, and having petitioned this Court for an Act remedial of such difficulties ; and the intentions of the said persons appearing to this Court deserving encouragement :

SECT. 1. Be it therefore enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court as- sembled, and by the authority of the same, That John Rowe, Stephen Greenleaf, Ralph Inman, Daniel Hubbard, John Cutler, Richard Greene, John Haskins, Benjamin Greene, Nathaniel Greene, Joseph Greene, Thomas Ivers, James Perkins, Reverend Samuel Parker, Thomas Kast, John Amory, junior, William Turner, Oliver Smith, Samuel Dunn, junior, William Tudor, James Lloyd, Thomas Amory, George Lush, Jabez Hatch, James Freeman, Samuel Wallis, Joseph Head, and Samuel Smith, the members of the said Society, be, and they hereby are incorporated, and made a body politic, for the aforesaid purposes, by the name of the Boston Episcopal Charitable Society, and that they, their associates and successors, have perpetual succession by the said name, and have power to make by-laws for the preservation and advancement of the said society, not repugnant to the laws of this Commonwealth, with penalties either of disfranchisement from the said society, or of a mulct not exceeding twenty shillings, or without penalties, as shall seem most meet.

SECT. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said Boston Episcopal Charitable Society be, and they hereby are authorized and empowered, to make, appoint and have a common seal; and are hereby made liable to be sued and enabled to sue and defend in their said corporate capacity, in any of the Courts of Record or other Courts of law of this Commonwealth; and are hereby licensed and empowered to make purchases, and to receive grants and donations of real and personal estates, and to hold the same for the charitable purposes aforesaid, provided the rents of the real estate, together with the interest of the personal estate, shall not exceed the sum of nine hundred pounds, and to manage and dispose of such estates as to the said corporation shall appear fit.

SECT. 3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said society be, and they hereby are invested with full power and authority to assemble on any one Tuesday in either of the months of March or April next, for the purpose of appointing a President, Vice-President, Treasurer, and six Trustees, together with such other officers as by them shall be adjudged suitable, and to appoint their common seal, and to make by-laws within the restrictions aforesaid; and the said officers so appointed, shall continue until others shall be appointed in their room. And the said society shall meet on any one Tuesday in either of the months of March or April, as they shall from time to time, or at any time, agree, annually, afterwards, at Boston, for the purpose of choosing a President, Vice-President, Treasurer, and six Trustees, and such other officers as they shall think proper; and to make, alter, or annul their by-laws. And if by reason of any emergency, the business of this annual assembly cannot be completed on the said day, they may adjourn once to a short day to finish it, and no more ; and the said society may assemble as often as they may agree on, for transacting all other business. And whenever any of the officers of the said Society shall die, or be disabled, or remove out of this State, the members of the said society are hereby authorized and empowered, at their next meeting, to elect and appoint others in the room of the officers so removed. And all instruments which the said Society shall lawfully make and execute, shall, when in the name of the said society, and pursuant to the rules thereof, being signed and delivered by the President, Vice-President, or Treasurer, or such other person as the said society shall appoint, and sealed with their common seal, bind the said society, and be valid in law.

SECT. 4. Provided always, and it is further enacted, That the members of the said society shall at no time exceed the number of one hundred. And the Governor of this Commonwealth is hereby authorised and empowered, to give a charter of incorporation, under the seal of the Commonwealth, to the aforementioned persons and their associates accordingly.

SECT. 5. Provided also, That nothing contained in this Act shall be construed, as implying any degree of subjection of the society by this Act incorporated, or of any other society in this Commonwealth, to any foreign potentate, prelate, or jurisdiction whatsoever.

[This Act passed February 12, 1784.]

BOSTON EPISCOPAL CHARITABLE SOCIETY.

I. The object of this Institution is the relief of necessitous persons of the Episcopal Church, who are or have been Inhabitants of the town of Boston ; and no others shall be considered entitled to the benefits of this Charity : excepting such persons as have been members of the Society, and their families, and the Widows and Orphans of Clergymen of Episcopal Churches within the Commonwealth.

II. All Episcopalians resident within the town of Boston, without distinction of sex, shall be considered eligible as members of this Society, and shall have the right of voting by proxy, provided the substitute be also a member. Episcopalians, however, not inhabitants of Boston, may be admitted, provided that their number shall never exceed one quarter part of the whole.

III. Persons desirous of admission shall signify their desire to one of the members of the Board of Trustees, which request shall be considered at a meeting of the Board, and the application (under their direction) recorded by the Secretary, and laid before the Society at their next meeting; and if the applicant shall then obtain the votes of three-fourths of the members present he shall be admitted.

IV. Every person shall, on admission, pay to the Treasurer Five Dollars, in aid of the Society's Funds and subscribe for the same object at least Five Dollars per annum, which shall be paid yearly, at the annual meeting. But all Subscribers who shall pay a sum not less than Fifty Dollars shall be entitled to the privileges of Members during Life.

V. There shall be an Annual Meeting, and three Quarterly Meetings of the Society. The Annual Meeting shall always be holden on Tuesday in Easter week, at such place as the Society shall determine; when the yearly subscriptions shall be paid, and the following Officers elected, namely, a President, Vice President, Treasurer, Six Trustees, and a Secretary; who shall compose the Board of Trustees. All elections shall be determined by a majority of the Voters present.

The Quarterly Meetings shall be held at such places in Boston, as the President shall appoint, on the first Thursdays of July, at 8 o'clock, of October, at 7 o'clock, and of January, at 6 o'clock, in the evening. And no affair of consequence shall be entered on at any meeting until the President or Vice President be in the Chair, or four of the Trustees be present. And every question shall be determined by a majority of the voters present, except in the abrogation of any of these rules, or in the grant of any sum exceeding Forty Dollars to one person. In these cases two-thirds of the voters present shall agree thereto.

VI. The Board of Trustees shall be charged with the sole management and direction of the funds of the Institution. The amount of yearly subscriptions, life subscriptions, and donations, shall be added to the principal Stock, which shall in no case be diminished, but invested to the best advantage, and the accruing Interest only shall be distributed to the proper objects of this Charity.

VII. The Treasurer shall, before receiving the Stock, Specialties, Books, and Papers, belonging to the Society, give Bond, with sufficient surety, to the Trustees, in such sum as they shall require, to exhibit on demand just and true accounts, and to surrender all property of the Society in his possession to his successor in office, or such person as may be appointed to receive the same. And in case of the death or incapacity of the Treasurer, the President and Trustees shall convene the Society immediately for the choice of another.

VIII. It shall be the duty of the Secretary, to record the proceedings at all the meetings both of the Society and of the Trustees, in a book which shall be open to the inspection of every member.

IX. The Board of Trustees shall meet on the first Thursday of each month in which there is no Quarterly Meeting, and are hereby authorised to distribute such sums to the indigent objects of this Charity as they shall think proper, not exceeding Thirty Dollars to one person. And the President or any three of the Board of Trustees, shall have authority to call special Meetings of the Trustees, or to convene the whole Society upon any special business in which this Charity may be interested.

X. All necessary expenses arising from the Meetings of the Society, shall be equally apportioned among the male Members, and each shall be charged by the Treasurer with his proportionate part, to be paid by him at the Annual Meeting.

XI. Every borrower of money shall find two sufficient sureties. And if any specialties belonging to the Society shall remain unpaid for two months after it becomes due, the Treasurer shall put the same in suit.

XII. That no inconveniencies may arise from the members of this Society being either borrowers or sureties, no member shall be permitted to be either a borrower or surety, unless it be in the capacity of a Warden, Vestryman, or Committee of any Church already built, or which may be built within the town of Boston, to which the Society may think proper to loan a sum of money.

XIII. If any member shall neglect to pay his subscription for the space of two years successively, being duly notified thereof, he shall cease to be a member.

XIV. When the Society have a public dinner, no guest shall be invited but by the President and Trustees. And no member shall be assessed for the expense of the same, unless he shall have subscribed his consent to the measure.
